

When Moses asked God what name he was to use if the Israelites asked who had sent him, God answered, "I Am Who I Am. This is what you are to say to the Israelites; "I Am has sent me to you."

When we consider the Word of God, we experience a similar answer from God. "I Am Who I Am" is the same God who is the "Word" and inspired the Word of God.

The Word (Jesus) was with God in the beginning. All things were made through him, and there is nothing that exists that was made without Him. Life is in him, and he is the light of all mankind. I Am is the Word, and the Word is I Am.

So, what does that make you think about scripture? Is it just a book of stories and wise advice or do you give scripture the reverence it deserves? Do you let the light of scripture shine in the dark places of your life? His light shines in the darkness, and the darkness will not and cannot overcome the Word. Hold fast to the promises of God's Word and let his light, "the light of all mankind," shine through you.
